

TravelWatch North West Conference The role of community transport

Keith Halstead

Chief Executive
CTA UK

www.ctauk.org

www.ctauk.org

What is community transport?

“ Local transport provision which is not provided through scheduled bus or rail services, and which is organised on a non-profit making basis by voluntary organisations, community groups and other non-statutory organisations.”

Department for Transport 2005

State of the Sector report

Why is community transport important?

- ‡ Addresses social exclusion
- ‡ Provides responsive services and empowers communities
- ‡ Acts as the “local loop” of the transport system
- ‡ Regeneration of areas

What is the future?

New Coalition Government

- ‡ Economic climate
- ‡ Big Society
- ‡ Reform of public services

Need

- ‡ Increasing need
- ‡ Rural disadvantage

Challenges and opportunities

- ‡ Local Transport Act
- ‡ Local Transport Plans
- ‡ Bus Service Operator's Grant reform
- ‡ Quality Standards

Hot topics

The future?

The future?

- ‡ Local authorities
- ‡ Commercial operators
- ‡ Communities

Sustainable communities

